Artist information for selling art at the Student Art Series shows

- Purchase cards are posted by each piece of art that is for sale.
- When someone would like to buy your piece, they take the card off of the wall or display case and present it to the front desk personnel who will process the sale of your art.
- All purchased art will stay in place until the end of the show.
- If your artwork is sold, Phoenix Center for the Arts will email you to collect a W9 form.
- If your piece does not sell, we will schedule a time for you to come pick it up at the end of the show.
- During the week after the show, we will also provide buyers pick up times to collect their new art purchases.
- Lastly, if your art is sold, the Center will mail checks for the full purchase price of your artwork within two weeks of the end date of the show.
