Phoenix Center for the Arts Presents Annual Open House August 24, 2019

Free art workshops for the whole family

PHOENIX, AZ. – (August 14, 2019) Phoenix Center for the Arts invites community members to its annual Open House event taking place on Saturday, August 24, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at 1202 N. Third Street, Phoenix, AZ 85004. This fun-filled day consisting of free art workshops and demonstrations is fun for the whole family. Guests will participate in interactive art workshops and observe art demonstrations – a teaser of the classes offered at Phoenix Center for the Arts this fall and throughout the year.

Instructors will facilitate 20-minute, hands-on workshops in their respective departments, including dance, visual arts, glass, mosaics, photography, metals and jewelry, drama (bilingual), and music. Attendees can also attend a live ceramics demonstration or take a tour of the Radio Phoenix recording studio.

Those interested in participating can sign up for one or multiple sessions upon arrival. The Kids Zone is open to all ages and no sign-up is required. Guests who attend the Open House and register for classes on-site will receive a 15% discount on future class registrations. Complimentary snacks and refreshments will be provided.

“Phoenix Center for the Arts’ annual Open House is a fantastic preview of the art classes we offer at the Center,” says Lauren Henschen, CEO of Phoenix Center for the Arts. “We strive to offer accessible art opportunities for all through meaningful engagement with the arts, and our Open House is one of the many ways we achieve that.”

Phoenix Center for the Arts offers more than 700 art classes for youth and adults year round. Thunderbird Arts Center, the Center’s North Phoenix campus, which opened in April of 2016, provides similar class opportunities.
