The 10th Annual Phoenix Festival of the Arts Returns to Hance Park, December 11 & 12, 2021

PHOENIX, AZ – (October 15, 2021) Phoenix Festival of the Arts is excited to return to Margaret T. Hance Park on December 11 and 12 to celebrate 10 years of art, music, food, and community! Phoenix Center for the Arts is proud to present this annual free festival, featuring more than 100 art vendors, live music, and local food. With live interactive art, the Valley's favorite food trucks, and unique hand-made gifts, it's a Phoenix favorite for a day in the park, and a great opportunity to pick up some one-of-a-kind, locally-made holiday gifts.

Returning this year, festival goers can expect to:

- Shop a variety of local artist vendors, from ceramics to metal sculptures, jewelry, and paintings, with opportunities to participate in the popular Phoenix Mural Project.
- Listen to live music on the Main Stage, sponsored by Rebel Lounge.
- Enjoy local eats from food trucks with beer and wine sponsored by Hensley Beverage Company and Dos Cabezas WineWorks.
- The Family Zone, presented by the Teen Artist Guild, with fun, free activities for families all day long.
- Artist demonstrations and performances inside the Entertainment Pavilion.

The Best In Show Awards event will also be returning this year. This after-hours event is a "friendraiser" with proceeds benefiting Phoenix Center for the Arts' arts education scholarships and financial aid. "Friend of the Festival" tickets will be available to purchase online soon, and include dinner from a food truck, one drink ticket, and live music from local bands, all while getting to know the amazing artists of the Festival.
