

PHOENIX CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Phoenix Center for the Arts Spring Classes

Let your creativity blossom this spring at Phoenix Center for the Arts

Public Registration Opens October 25

PHOENIX, AZ – (October 25, 2021) Phoenix Center for the Arts is excited to announce students can register for spring classes, beginning October 25th. The Center will have art classes for every age from adults 18 and up, to youth ranging from 6 to 17 years old.

The Center is thrilled to offer in person and online classes as they strive to make art accessible for everyone. Whether you're looking for a new passion project, a place to decompress after a long day of work, or a safe place to participate in art after school. There's a space for you at the Center this spring!

Spring classes will begin in January, but classes often fill fast. Ceramics, drawing, and mixed-media classes have already begun to reach capacity, with more classes being added each week.

In-person classes and virtual classes will be offered in two locations, with some classes taught in spanish. The classes being offered this spring include open studios, beginning jewelry, and intermediate glass fusing.

Program Details

Program: Spring Art Classes

When: Public registration opens October 25th

Register: <https://phoenixcenterforthearts.org/classes/>

Cost: Starting at $24 and up

Where: In-person at both campuses, Phoenix Center for the Arts Downtown and Thunderbird Arts Center, and online through Zoom.

Registration for spring classes is available by calling (602) 254-3100 or online at <https://phoenixcenterforthearts.org/classes/> .

###

About Phoenix Center for the Arts and Central Arts Alliance

Phoenix Center for the Arts is a Central Arts Alliance facility located adjacent to Hance Park, at 1202 N Third Street in Downtown Phoenix. Central Arts Alliance is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, providing arts and culture opportunities for all through education, programming, and advocacy. Phoenix Center for the Arts is proud to be a facility of and supported by the City of the Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department. Phoenix Center for the Arts is supported in part by an award from the Arizona Commission on the Arts, an agency of the State of Arizona. Partial funding provided by the Phoenix Office of Arts and Culture through appropriations from the Phoenix City Council.

Info: <https://phoenixcenterforthearts.org/>

About Thunderbird Arts Center, Phoenix Center for the Arts' north campus

Thunderbird Arts Center, in partnership with the City of Phoenix, is a satellite location of Phoenix Center for the Arts, located at 1106 E. Grovers Ave, serving our North Phoenix communities. Classes being offered at this location include: Ceramics, Mosaics, Painting & Drawing, Photography, Printmaking, Mosaics, Youth Art, and more!

Info: <https://phoenixcenterforthearts.org/thunderbird-arts-center/>

Health & Safety

Face coverings/masks that completely cover the nose and mouth are still required of all individuals, regardless of vaccination status, at all times. Staff and students are asked to follow health and safety protocols while at both Centers. Any in-person students will need to digitally sign a student agreement. Information on the protocols taken by PCA to create a safe and welcoming environment can be found at:

<https://phoenixcenterforthearts.org/health-safety>

###

Media: Please call or email for additional images, captions, interview requests and more.

Media-only contacts:

Renee Aguilar

Marketing Manager, Phoenix Center for the Arts

(602) 254-3100

renee.aguilar@phoenixcenterforthearts.org

If you feel that you have received this press release in error, please accept our apologies and reply "remove" in the body of the email. Thank you!