

Media Contact:
marketing@phoenixcenterforthearts.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Central Arts Alliance Welcomes Interim Executive Director

The Central Arts Alliance Board of Directors has announced the appointment of Angelique Kane as its Interim Executive Director

Phoenix, AZ — April 7, 2025 — Central Arts Alliance is thrilled to announce the appointment of Angelique N. Kane as its Interim Executive Director for the Phoenix Center for the Arts, effective April 1, 2025.

Angelique brings over 15 years of experience in community advocacy, arts facilitation, and nonprofit leadership. Most recently, she led strategic initiatives in multiple roles within The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at Arizona State University. Her proven skills encompass project management, fundraising, and organizational development, and she has served on several nonprofit boards, including here at Phoenix Center for the Arts.

“As a resident of Phoenix’s vibrant Roosevelt Row Arts District, I am deeply invested in the artistic vitality of our city and eager to leverage my skills to serve the Phoenix Center for the Arts,” said Angelique Kane. “I am excited to work alongside the community to amplify the Center’s impact as we provide arts and culture opportunities for all through education, programming, and advocacy.” Angelique’s commitment to arts access and deep understanding of our mission make her well-positioned to provide steady guidance and support during this interim period.

Please join us in welcoming Angelique Kane to Phoenix Center for the Arts! Please email marketing@phoenixcenterforthearts.org for media inquiries or to learn more about Phoenix Center for the Art’s mission and upcoming initiatives.

About Phoenix Center for the Arts:

Phoenix Center for the Arts provides arts and culture opportunities for all through education, programming, and advocacy. The Center strives to be the premier provider of arts and cultural experiences that improve, stimulate, and unite the communities we serve.